

Records management checklist

Be easy to understand

Make it quick and easy to retrieve information

Make records management processes routine

Be classified and indexed to bring together related records

Contain metadata that accurately describes the records

Protect records from unauthorised copying, moving or deleting

Have secure access

Enable a clear audit trail to be produced when records have been used, altered or destroyed